

On the Occasion of the 16th Session of the Human Rights Council

The United States Mission to the United Nations and Other International Organizations in Geneva

Invites you to a Panel Discussion on

Internet Freedom:

Promoting Human Rights in the Digital Age

On Friday, March 4, 2011

1pm to 3pm

Room XIX

Palais des Nations, United Nations Office at Geneva

Featured Panelists

Michael Posner

Assistant Secretary of State for Democracy, Human Rights and Labor

Richard Allan

Director of Policy for Europe, Middle East and Africa
Facebook

Brett Solomon

Executive Director, Access

Note: A UN Badge is required for access. If you do not have a UN Badge, please RSVP via email to events@usmission.ch no later than 5pm on March 3, 2011. Please bring this invitation and your passport or some other form of photo identification for security processing at the UN gate.

Due to the large number of visitors to the UN when the Human Rights Council is in session, non UN badge holders should plan to arrive at the UN security lobby at least 30 minutes before the commencement of the event.

UN Badge holders are NOT required to RSVP.